Bill Rexdale, CFP

Bill began his investment advisor career in 2012 and has continually upgraded his designations through professional development.

As Small Business Specialist, Bill can provide the expertise and professional network beneficial to business owner clients.

Exceptional client service is a priority for his team and selecting quality investments with a long term investment plan is the goal.

Outside of work Bill leads a busy life with his wife, Laura and their Labradoodle. Whether skiing in the winter or kayaking in the summer, Bill enjoys being outdoors.

Specialized Services Provided

Risk Management

Evaluating your financial risks and identifying strategies to avoid or minimize them is an essential first step.
